(i) The Board shall initiate and maintain a working relationship with the Bar to coordinate disclosure of information concerning an individual’s status as a Probationary Licensee. On request, the Board, in coordination with the Bar, shall inform a member of the public whether a particular individual is a Probationary Licensee. This disclosure may occur via the official website of the Bar or other means reasonably available to members of the public. Any information that forms the basis for the issuance of a Probationary License is confidential, as required by statute.

Rule 17

Issuance of License Certificates and Cancellation of License Unlawfully Obtained

(a) Upon an Applicant’s becoming entitled to a license under these Rules, the Board must certify the Applicant to the Supreme Court, whose Clerk will issue the corresponding license in the form of a written certificate. The license may be issued only in the name shown on a valid, government-issued identification card, except that a given name may be omitted or represented by an initial if the Applicant so requests in writing. No license may be issued using an alias, assumed name, nickname, or abbreviation of a name.

(b) All law licenses are issued on the condition that the Applicant has faithfully complied with these Rules. If at any time it appears that an Applicant has obtained a license fraudulently or by willful failure to comply with these Rules, after notice and hearing, the Board may recommend to the Supreme Court that the license be withdrawn and canceled, and the name of the license holder stricken from the roll of attorneys.

(c) No license issued under this Rule is valid unless the license holder has paid all required fees and has enrolled in the Bar in compliance with the State Bar Rules.

(d) The license certificate belongs to the Supreme Court and must be surrendered to the Court upon proper demand.
